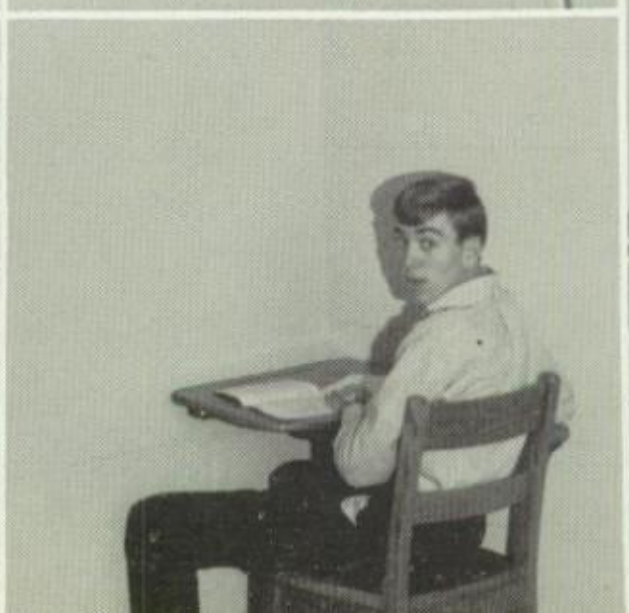
Alma Mater

Lexington High School, hear thy children singing;
Songs to thy memory dear,
Love and trust now bringing;
Hearts of devotion, thanks and praise outpouring, ever adoring.

Hail! Senior High School, bind our hearts together;
Thanks for thy service,
Fair or stormy weather.
Loyal we pledge the faith, and the love enduring, ever enduring.

Hopes for thy future, aims and efforts blending;
Thy home and favor
Inspiration sending;
Thy radiant spirit shining ever near us. Hail! Alma Mater, dear!



"And all the men and women merely players."

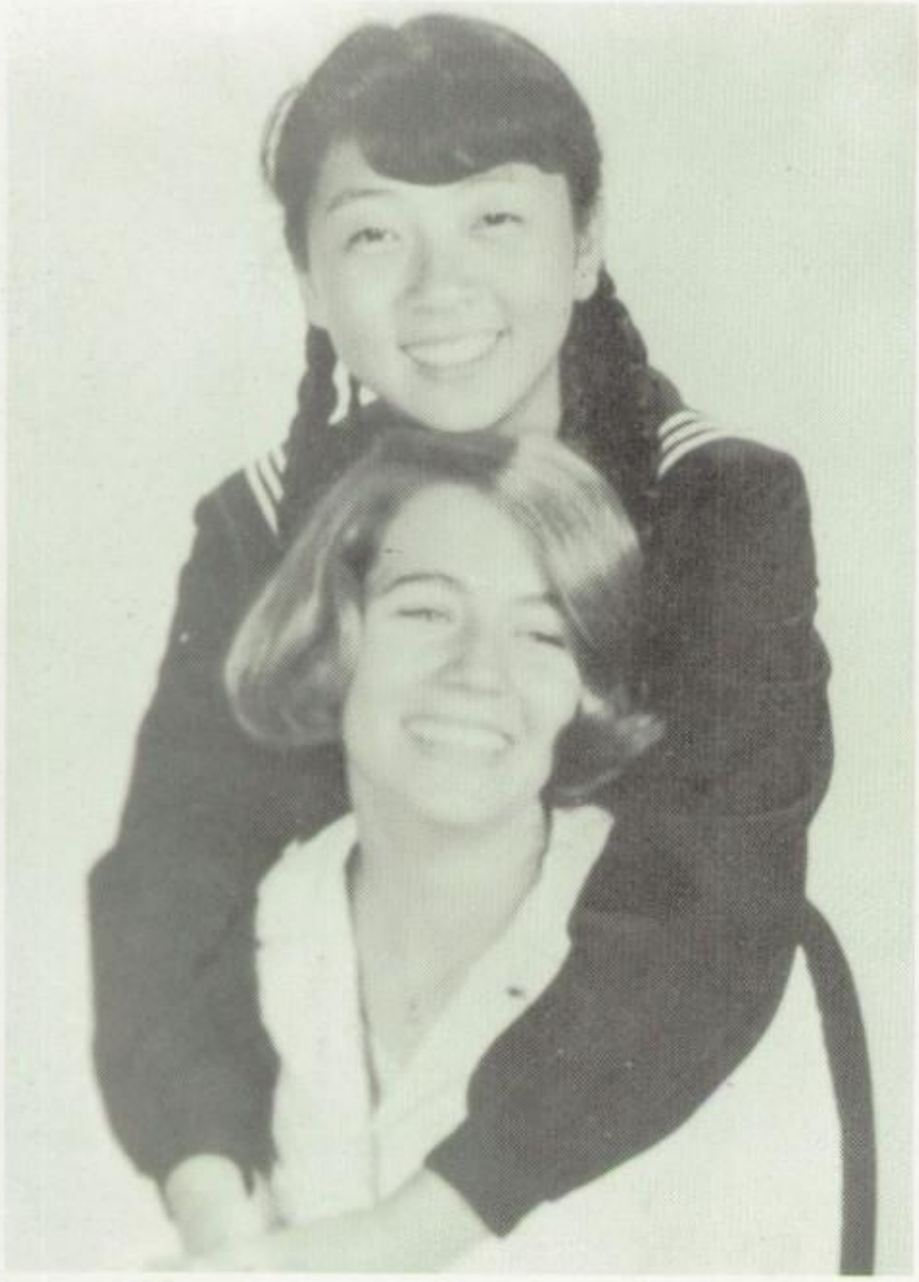
The Student Council members serve as chairmen for various committees throughout the year. The Student Council committees contribute greatly to the efficient manner in which the school operates.



American Field Service

Kathy Stallings was Lexington's summer exchange student last year. She spent three months in the home of Koji Tada in Ichinomiya, Japan. Kathy spent her summer traveling, attending a Japanese high school, and making many Japanese friends. Kathy is pictured here with her eighteen year old sister Keiko.

Jelle Veenstra, our foreign exchange student from the Netherlands, is making his home with the Cliff Ericksons during the 1965-1966 school term. The student body of LSHS recognizes Jelle as an outstanding student and an affable person. He is shown here with his American brother, Steve Erickson.

COACHES

CAPTAIN

Frederick Cabell Philpott

Determination, intelligence, and firmness are the ingredients that make a great football coach. This year Lexington's football team was fortunate to have not one, but four coaches with these characteristics. The team's record verifies this point. At the beginning of the football season the Yellow Jackets were not supposed to win half of their games; yet, because these four men had the faith and courage to work beyond the "call of duty," their team made the state playoffs.

A large part of the Jackets' success this year can be attributed to Captain Ted Philpott. His job was not an easy one. Rocky roads, like Kiddie Kamp and the Burlington game, brought out Ted's greatest qualities of leadership. He was always an inspiration on and off the field to all his teammates. Ted won many outstanding honors; however, he will be remembered longer for his dedication and "never-say-die" spirit.

The tennis program at Lexington Senior High School has been greatly improved in the last two years. The boys work almost year round under the direction of Frank King. The team, which is headed by Steve Erickson and Jeff Griffith, is ranked high in the conference because of last year's fine record of 6-3. Back from the '65 team are four lettermen as well as other young players. The netters are capable of bringing Lexington a prosperous season, as well as a championship, if these promising youngsters develop.

In early spring, a team of energetic boys begins rigorous training for positions in the events of track. There are 14 events and from the first day of practice there is a select group called the "Flash" Club formed. Due to the hard work of these fine boys the membership of this club increases steadily each day.

THE TEMPEST

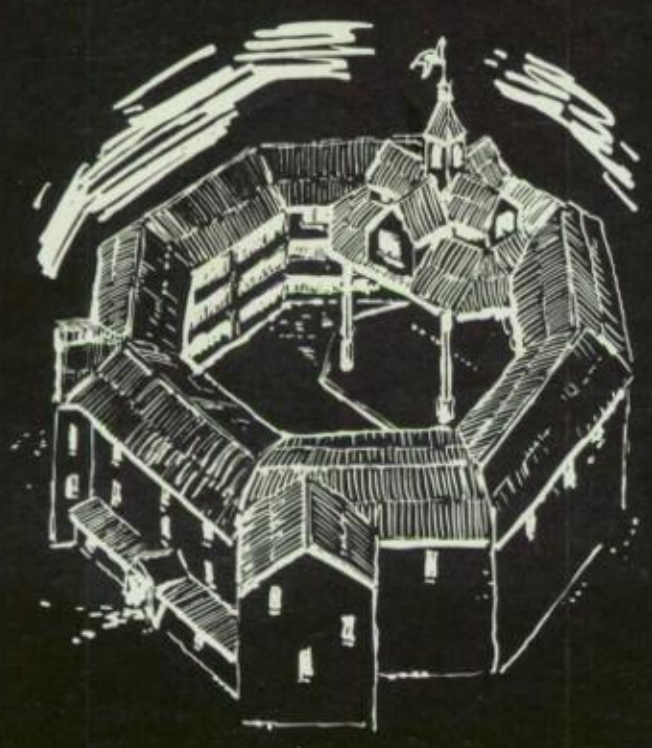
Here we end our attempt to bring you a life-long remembrance of this year's exploits. With the closing of the school year, we, with mixed emotions, must close your annual. Its purpose has been to preserve memories for you, the faculty and student body, of your parts in this act of life. The 1966 LEXICON required the devoted work of a number of people. To each of these we express proud gratitude.

To photographer Mr. Claude Gentry and School Pictures, Inc., Mr. Cliff Ingram, Mr. H. Lee Waters, and our own fine staff photographer Clark Smith, we express gracious thanks for making possible the many pictures of the year's events. We thank you for your time, effort, and expense. For his art work on the inside of the covers, a special thanks to Chip Holton, whose mother, Bobbie Green Holton, was the first LEXICON Editor. Miss Matthews did an expert job of working with the staff and Mr. Joe Phelps of Edwards and Broughton Publishing Company of Raleigh. These two experienced advisors worked diligently and patiently to teach us the art of editing an annual we hope you will enjoy.

The entire class section of individual pictures is credited to the efforts of our class editors. Our appreciation goes to Robyn Beck, Windon Blanton, Lynn Dunn, Steve Erickson, Joe Hooker, Steve Raker, Suzanne Reynolds, and Carol Young who also worked as the staff typist. Thank you Jack Mundy and Andrea Carrick for the club section. Becky Chambless, thanks for editing features, and Jill Leonard for editing organizations. And thank you Ted Philpott and Charlie Mauze for drawing up the sports section in this year's annual.

We must extend a definite thanks to William Shakespeare for the use of his works in our yearbook, and thank you, the student body and faculty members of Lexington Senior High School, for being the actors upon our stage.

May the 1966 LEXICON always hold happy memories for you, and may you treasure it, because it is yours.



Sincerely,

Ronnie Johnson

Amy,

I can't believe we are at last upperclassmen. I think this year we got to know each other a lot better. I don't know how, but by some miracle we survived Señor Hollar and Spanish II. We have had some conversations well worth remembering. It was funny when I took your fingernail for gum. I will always our talks about Nina & all of her "loves". I enjoyed listening to a few of your problems about som- always remember, when you have a problem, I am always available to listen. Just call me or come over. Be good this summer and have loads of fun. You are a very sweet, cute, and deserving girl. I hope to see you some this summer.

You said that you couldn't begin to write. Well I can't either because I've done so many things with you. (I guessed at it mean that in a clean, Solesombe sense) you're a real angel and I'll always admire and respect you.

We've really had a ball in English, ugh; History, ugh ugh) and biology, ugh ugh ugh, but through all this I've found out many, many things about you. Something about your and your little escapade at Raleigh (another guess remember when you were raking the yard, to mention only a few things.

I hope you have enjoyed this year. I know I have, because you were a part of it and you made it a complete one for me.

Another thing is the car, Cortina. I have found a million photographs of them). Will you forgive me for forgetting to cut them them out and giving them to you. I'm sure you will because you are a wonderful, forgiving, and very lady like person and I promise that as I go through the years that I'll never forget the way you walk, and talk, well just you for you are all the wonderful things I have just described and more because words can never express the true amy Cortina.

I've got to close now, but remember to always walk with God and he will supply all of your needs. I hope to see ya this summer. Bye for now.

Love always,
Ken Yates.
